

Mennonite Passenger Lists for Refugee Transport to Paraguay in 1930-1931

Updated and compiled by Marvin Rempel

The Mennonites who left the Soviet Union in 1929 should be probably regarded as people whose journey began as emigrants but ended in a nightmare as refugees. What began as a small trickle of Mennonites in the spring and summer of 1929 into Moscow seeking to emigrate resulted in a flood of 13,000 - 14,000 refugees by the fall. Mainly of Mennonite background, the refugees were joined by a significant number of Soviet Germans of Lutheran, Catholic, and other religious backgrounds. This sudden rush of “Germans” into Moscow created a high stakes international incident in late 1929 involving diplomats and leaders from the Soviet Union, Germany, Canada, and other North American and South American countries.

By late November/early December 1929, about 5,700 refugees from Moscow made their way into Germany. Initially settled in former Germany military barracks located in Hammerstein and Prenzlau, the refugees were moved to Mölln for transport to other countries. Later escapees, births in the camps, and later refugees with special permission to join family members in Germany raised total numbers to 6,278 in Germany. However, the death of 288 refugees, mainly children, reduced the numbers eligible to emigrate to about 5,990 refugees. The remaining refugees in Moscow were forcibly dispersed to Siberia or to their former homes.

In addition to providing 2.5 million Reichsmarks for refugee support, the German government forwarded $150,000 to the Canadian government to mitigate the financial burden of the Moscow refugees selected to immigrate to Canada. Local German relief organizations added over 890,000 Reichsmarks while German President Paul von Hindenburg personally donated 200,000 Reichsmarks to the cause. Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) initially raised about $100,000 (US) for refugee resettlement in South America and land purchases near Menno Colony in Paraguay. Ultimately, almost all the refugees were resettled in Canada, Brazil and Paraguay. A handful of the refugees made their way to the United States, Mexico, and Argentina. Approximately 300 refugees, mostly non-Mennonite, were resettled within Germany.

The attached passenger lists represent an update to the Paraguay passenger lists compiled by Ron Isaak in 2003. The ship lists compiled by Ron Isaak were based on files located in the Mennonite Central Committee Archives Collection (IX). Ron Isaak's lists were drawn primarily from the Harold S. Bender files, in the section on Russian Relief and Paraguayan Immigration (Catalogue # IX-3-1) within the MCC Collection. The four Paraguayan Transports lists were found in Box 2, File 2 entitled "Transport Lists and Miscellaneous Correspondence, 1930". Harold S. Bender was involved personally in assisting this emigration in late 1929 into 1930 and beyond, on behalf of Mennonite Central Committee. Dr. Bender's lists reflected preliminary passenger lists, not the final lists of the passengers who boarded the ships.

In 2010, a subsequent review by Marvin Rempel of the MCC Archives located finalized lists for five Paraguayan transport lists in the files of the Corporacion Paraguaya Inc. These files were in Box 11 of section IX-3-3 within the MCC collection labelled "Mennonite Central Committee, Paraguayan Immigration, 1920-33, Corporación Paraguay, Inc., 1926-52." Two additional ship passenger lists for ships departing Hamburg for Paraguay in 1931 were located in 2022.

The Corporacion Paraguaya was a company founded by retired General Samuel McRoberts to specifically arrange for the purchase of Chaco land in Paraguay from the Carlos Casado Company, which owned three million acres between the Paraguay River and the Bolivian border west of Puerto Casado. The corporation sold part of these land holdings to Mennonites from Canada who founded the Menno Colony. The corporation helped manage the details of actual settlement of the Canadians on their land holdings. This company sold additional land to MCC to establish the Fernheim colony for the refugees from the Soviet Union in 1930. See the following articles from GAMEO for further information about the Corporacion Paraguaya and the founding of the Fernheim colony: Corporación Paraguaya - GAMEO and Fernheim Colony \(Boquerón Department, Paraguay\) - GAMEO.

According to the 25th anniversary book for the Fernheim colony, the religious affiliation of the 5,671 Russian [Soviet] Germans found in the three refugee camps of Hammerstein, Prenzlau, and Mölln in 1930 were broken down as follows: Mennonites 3,885; Lutherans 1,260; Catholics 468; Baptists 51; and Adventists 7.

In Mölln, Mennonite refugees destined for Paraguay were divided into groups for transport and were assigned to specific villages in the Fernheim Colony before departure. From Mölln, the transport groups departed for Hamburg or Bremerhaven before sailing for Buenos Aires, Argentina. From Buenos Aires, they boarded a river boat to travel upriver to Puerto Casado in Paraguay. At Puerto Casado, a train travelling on a narrow-gauge railroad took them 145 km inland to a station at km 145 (Station Fred Engen). From here, they were met by Menno Colony colonists to travel the last 110 km by cart to their new homes in the Fernheim Colony.

Based on initial lists, the Paraguay refugees were divided into transport groups as follows:

Group 1: 56 families with 360 people under the leadership of Johann Funk and Preacher H.B. Friesen on the S.S. Bayern departing Hamburg 15 March 1930. Group 1 was assigned to the Fernheim villages Lichtfelde (1), Kleefeld (2), and Gnadenheim (3). They arrived in Buenos Aires, Argentina on 10 April 1930 and at their destination in Fernheim on 26 April 1930.

Group 2: 68 families with 354 individuals under the leadership of Preacher Gerhard Schartner on the S.S. General Belgrano departing Hamburg 16 April 1930. Group 2 was assigned to the Fernheim villages of Gnadenheim (3), Wiesenfeld (4), Friedensfeld (5), and Friedensruh (6). They arrived at their destination in Fernheim on 28 May 1930.

Group 3: 67 families with 360 persons under the leadership of Preacher Nicolai Siemens on the S.S. Sierra Cordoba departing Bremerhaven 12 May 1930. Group 3 was assigned to the Fernheim villages of Friedensruh (6), Schönwiese (7), and Schönbrunn (8). They arrived at their destination in Fernheim on 18 June 1930.

Group 4: 69 families with 353 individuals under the leadership of Abram Klassen on the S.S. Villa Garcia departing Hamburg 12 July 1930. Group 4 was assigned to the Fernheim villages of Auhagen (9), Rosenort (10), and Waldesruh (11). They arrived in Buenos Aires, Argentina on 7 August 1930 and at their destination in Fernheim on 26 August 1930.

Group 5 was split into 3 transport groups:

Group 5a (Transport 5): 5 families with 23 individuals under the leadership of Gerhard Isaak on the S.S. General Belgrano departing Hamburg 17 September 1930 and arriving in Fernheim on 27 October 1930;

Group 5b (Transport 6): 14 families with 70 individuals under the leadership of David Thielmann on the S.S. Wuerttemberg departing Hamburg 11 July 1931 and arriving in Fernheim on 20 August 1931;

Group 5c (Transport 7): 10 families with 65 persons under the leadership of Heinrich Willms on the S.S. General Osorio departing Hamburg 10 September 1931 and arriving in Fernheim on 15 October 1931.

Subsequently, two additional groups arrived in Fernheim:

Group 1: 48 individuals from the Polish settlements of Deutsch-Wymyschle and Deutsch-Kazun arrived in 1930 and settled initially in the village of Rosenfeld.

Group 2: 375 Mennonite refugees from Harbin, China departing Shanghai for Marseilles, France on the S.S. D'Artagnan 22 February 1932 before travelling to Paris and then on to Le Havre. From LeHavre this group boarded the S.S. Croix and sailed to Buenos Aires before arriving in their new Chaco home on 12 May 1932. For further details about the Paraguay Harbin group and a listing of those who came to Paraguay, please see the following link: <https://chortitza.org/harbin/hbin003.php#irc>

This list focuses on the first five groups who were housed in Mölln. Individual ship passenger lists for each ship are available through links in the following table.

An Excel table with a comprehensive list of all the data is available to download. It includes data regarding each passenger's last permanent residence in the Soviet Union. What follows are two versions of the Excel table without the permanent residence information. The first table is a comprehensive presentation the data in the original order for each ship. An alphabetical listing of the comprehensive data follows the first table.

In general, the columns in the lists are broken down as follows:

GRanDMA:	Reference number in the GRanDMA database. See grandmaonline.org
Ship:	The name of the transport ship
Date:	Departure date from Hamburg or Bremerhaven
Lfd. No.	The list reference number for an individual on a particular ship passenger list
Transport Family Number:	A ship transport number followed by a two-digit family number for each family group.
Mölln Village	The Fernheim village number that was assigned in Mölln.
Last Name First Name Patronymic	The last name of the individual followed by their first name and the name of their father.
Age	Estimated age in years given by the list or calculated.
Birth Date	A listing of birth dates was supplied for the first transport.
Region/Province District Village	The last permanent place of residence in Soviet Russia before coming to Germany. Place names are not always accurate. They may reflect village names of Imperial Russia mixed with administrative districts and regions or provinces associated with Soviet Russia. Some village references are to the post office where mail was received. This information is included in the Excel file that can be downloaded from this page (see above for link).
Source	A reference number indicating the original source for this transcribed record. This information is included in the Excel file that can be downloaded from this page (see above for link).
