

Those Leaving the Danzig Flemish Mennonite Church: 1802-1806

Translated by Glenn H Penner (gpenner@uoguelph.ca)

Church transfers are a very important source of genealogical information. They allow one to follow a person from one location, or congregation, to another. The transferring person was usually expected to present an Attest (a transfer certificate) upon transferring to a new congregation. Unfortunately, very few records of transfer, and almost no Attesten, have survived.

The following is a list of the only transfer records available for the Danzig Flemish Mennonite congregation, and only for those transferring out.
