

Lists of Those Wishing to Emigrate from West Prussia to Russia 1803 to 1806

Russian State Historical Archive (RGIA)
Fond 383, Opus 29

Translated by Glenn H Penner (gpenner@uoguelph.ca)

The following seven lists, originally written in German, are found in the collection of microfilms from the Russian State Historical Archive (RGIA) in St. Petersburg. These lists account for a total of 265 family units and a total of 1,375 persons. That's about five people per family. These lists were not included in Peter Rempel's Mennonite Migration to Russia, 1788-1828. An interesting aspect of these lists is that five of them include information on the assets each family was declaring in their application to emigrate from West Prussia. Typically, the Prussian government did not allow those households with less than 200 Reichsthaler to leave. Those who did leave were required to pay an exit tax of 10% of their assets. These lists were compiled in West Prussia and there is no guarantee that all of these people actually emigrated. The numbering has no meaning other than to keep track of the families.
