

Kronsgarten, Chortitza Mennonite Settlement Census for 1805

State Archives of Dnipropetrovsk Region (SADR) Fond 134, Opus 1, Delo 139

Translated by Glenn H Penner (gpenner@uoguelph.ca)

The village of Kronsgarten was unusual in that it was outside of the boundaries of the Chortitza Mennonite Settlement and much nearer several German colonies such as Josephsthal and Jamburg. As a result, it was frequently excluded in census and village lists for the Chortitza settlement. This census compliments the 1801, 1806 and 1816 census lists.

The entry for farmstead #14 is unusual in that it clearly gives Jacob Wiens (Vintz in the original) age 34 as the household head and states that he took over from Jacob Bartel, but his family is nearly identical to that of Jacob Bartel. I have yet to definitively identify this Jacob Wiens. He did not remain in Kronsgarten for long. The next year the owner of the farm was Jacob Klassen (see 1806 census), who immigrated in 1805.

For more information on Kronsgarten see the article in GAMEO, the online Mennonite encyclopedia.
