

Statement Regarding the Good, the Average, and the Negligent Proprietors from the Molochansk Mennonite District: 1839

Odessa State Archives Fond 6 Inventory 1 File 5731

The document below is a translation of the Russian language document found in Fond 6 Inventory 1 File 5731 in the Odessa State Archives in Ukraine.

All names have been converted from a transcription of the original Cyrillic script and put into standard, recognizable forms.

This document can serve as a bridge between the 1835 census and the 1847 list of property (Wirtschaft) owners found in the Molotschna colony voters list. Note that not all property owners are found in this list. The reason for this is unknown. The document does not indicate the criteria used to determine the categories.

The summary at the end shows that 69% of those listed were considered good proprietors, 31% were considered average, while none were considered negligent. Note that the newly founded villages had a lower percentage of good proprietors. This is not unexpected since it often took years for a village to properly establish itself.

This list can be compared to the corresponding 1843 list found here.
